EXPECT 10,000 TO CAST VOTES NEXT TUESDAY

Adams county politicians are going to be very much surprised if more than 60 per cent of the 16,706 registered voters in the county go to the polls at the general election next Tuesday.

In spite of the fact that most of the important county offices are at stake, general interest in the various contests is not running high and there were no indications today of a heavy vote. Not more than 10,000 ballots are expected in the county.

No matter how the voting goes there are going to be a lot of new faces in the court house next January. There will be a new sheriff, a new district attorney, a new register and recorder and a completely new board of commissioners.

Chairmen Confident

County GOP Chairman John H. Basehore said today he expects the entire Republican ticket will be elected and pointed to the registered majority of nearly 2,000 for the Republicans to back up his claim.

He admitted however that a light vote will shave that margin. But there has been no let-up by Mr. Basehore or party workers in campaign efforts because of the favorable statistics.

Fred Klunk, Democratic county chairman, does not claim a clean sweep for his ticket but he is confident that "we're going to elect some of our candidates" and indicated that he meant by that more than the minority members on the boards of commissioners and auditors.

No Contest for D. A.

Adams countians with other voters across the state will name their choice for judge of the Superior court. The candidates are John S. Fine, Republican, and Ivan J. McKenrick, Democrat.

The race for sheriff is between B. W. Spence, Gettysburg, a former sheriff who is the Republican nominee, and Walter J. Craumer, Fairfield Democrat.

Attorney Daniel E. Teeter, a Democrat, won both nominations for district attorney at the September primaries, and is assured of the election.

Interest In Commissioners

Arthur H. Shields, Republican incumbent, Cumberland township, opposes Lee M. Hartman, Cashtown Democrat, for prothonotary. Hartman formerly was elected to that office but resigned before his term expired to enter the armed forces.

Winifield G. Horner, the register and recorder, will be succeeded either by Harry D. Ridinger, Gettys-

COUNTY TO GET $17,005 FROM GASOLINE TAX

Municipal subdivisions in Adams county are eligible to receive $17,005.26 as their December 1 allocation from the Motor fund.

Requisitions for the final quarterly payment of 1947 are now being prepared by the Department of Highways under whose jurisdiction the money is expended by the local governmental units.

The money is being paid to cities, boroughs and first and second-class townships as their share of the tax levied on motor vehicle gasoline consumption. Local governmental units may expend this money for street, bridge and road maintenance or construction.

Checks to the various municipalities will be sent only after local authorities have qualified by filing a report showing receipts and expenditures of previous payments for the six-month period ending June 30, 1947.

County Payments

Amounts going to various municipal subdivisions in the county follow:

Abbottstown, $258.99; Arendtsville, $53.64; Bendersville, $58.67; Biglerville, $46.10; East Berlin, $100.58; Fairfield, $8.38; Gettysburg, $883.42; Littlestown, $463.50; McSherrystown, $280.79; New Oxford, $258.15; York Springs, $24.31.

Second-class townships are eligible for these amounts: Berwick, $203.54; Butler, $800.81; Conewago, $214.06; Cumberland, $749.34; Franklin, $1,408.84; Freedom, $304.13; Germany, $407.07; Hamilton, $521.71; Hamiltonban, $575.52; Highland, $383.68; Huntingdon, $1,055.11; Latimore, $959.19; Liberty, $477.26; Menallen, $921.76; Mt. SEEK 4 BANDS FOR PARADE ON MONDAY NIGHT

Members of the local Halloween committee today were attempting to secure four bands for Monday evening's parade.

Scheduled to take part so far are the Blue and Gray band and the Gettysburg high school band. The Gettysburg college band and the Biglerville high school band have been asked to participate. The Biglerville band would have been unable to attend Thursday night if the parade had been held at that time.

Otherwise everything is in readiness for the postponed event. Over $200 in prizes is awaiting winners of the various divisions of the contest. Of that amount $165 will be given for various types of costumes and entries. The remainder will be given as judges' prize with the judges instructed to give the prize to whomever or whatever catches their fancy in order that the prize money will be better distributed.

Street Dance

The first block of South Washington street, between Chambersburg and West Middle streets, will be blocked off Monday night for an open air dance to the music of Bill Jones' orchestra. Ten dollars in prizes await the three winners in a bubble gum blowing contest scheduled to be held on the reviewing stand in the square immediately after the parade. Contestants in the bubble gum contest were urged "not to be chewing more than five sticks of the gum at the time they enter the contest for the largest bubble gum bubble."

Additional donors were announced today by the committee. They include the Moose, Morris Gitlin, Mitchell's restaurant, Fissel-Britcher Agency, Bender's Cut Rate, Delecto, F and T, Gettysburg News and Sporting Goods and Rea and Derick's.

BIBLE CLASS AT MEETING IN HANOVER

The Starr Bible class of St. Paul's Lutheran church, Mrs. Holman L. Sell, president, held their monthly meeting, Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Albert Miller, McCosh street, Hanover. Miss Maggie Bair, an aunt of Mr. Miller and former member of the class, resides with the Miller family.

The entire meeting was in charge of Mrs. D. S. Kammerer, who was chairman of the program committee presided over the business session as well as over the program. The meeting opened with a song service, after which Mrs. Herbert Smith read a scripture lesson from Luke. Rev. D. S. Kammerer, pastor, offered prayer which was followed by the Lord's prayer in unison.

The program consisted of several readings, the first of which was a reading explaining the Lord's Prayer by Mrs. Kammerer. Other readings were presented by Mrs. Paul Scheivert, Mrs. Walter Schriver, Mrs. Herbert Smith and Mrs. Ralph Conover. The guess packages were presented by Mrs. D. S. Kammerer and Mrs. William Dixon and were received by Mrs. Arthur Bair and Mrs. John Kindig. Fifteen members and six visitors attended the meeting which closed with a song service after which was a social hour. An apple contest was won by the Rev. Mr. Kammerer, Mrs. Ralph Conover, Mrs. Arthur Bair and Mrs. Holman Sell and a bean contest which was won by Mrs. Paul Scheivert and Mrs. Holman L. Sell.

The program and hostess committee consisted of Mrs. D. S. Kammerer, Mrs. Herbert Smith, Mrs. Ralph Conover and Mrs. Albert Miller, who at the conclusion of the social hour served refreshments. The November meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Cleason Plunkert, Littlestown R. 1.

Cupid Busy During Month Of October

Marriage licenses issued at the court house during October surpassed the four-year average. Last month there were 26 issued by the clerk of the courts. The average for October over the last four-year period was 16.

Records of the office show that there were 13 licenses issued in October, 1946; 17 in the same month of 1945 and only seven in October, 1944. There were 28 licenses issued in September, 1947.

John B. Wolf, 90, Attends Sister's Funeral And Dies

An hour after he had attended the funeral of his sister here on Friday afternoon, John B. Wolf, 90, Biglerville, R. 1, was stricken and died almost instantly in a neighbor's automobile on Carlisle street at center square at 3:30 o'clock.

Mr. Wolf, a retired farmer, had appeared in his usual health when he and Mrs. Wolf attended the funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Catherine Roth, 81, Mr. Wolf's last surviving sister, at 2 o'clock at the Bender funeral home.

The Wolfs did some shopping after the service and Mr. Wolf walked to the postoffice before returning to the car of J. H. Heller, a neighbor who had brought the Wolfs to Gettysburg for the funeral. A few minutes after he and Mrs. Wolf seated themselves in the car, Mr. Wolf collapsed and died. Dr. H. M. Hartman was called but death had already occurred.

Was 90 On Monday

Dr. C. G. Crist, county coroner, was called from a football game at Gettysburg college and issued a certificate attributing death to coronary embolism.

Mr. Wolf, who had observed his 90th birthday anniversary on Monday, had lived for the last 37 years in Butler township about midway between Biglerville and Arendtsville.

He was a son of the late Josiah and Maria Kuhl Wolf. He and Mrs. Roth were the last survivors of that family. Mr. Wolf is survived by his widow, the former Emma G. Schlosser, and a number of nieces and nephews. He was a member of the Arendtsville Reformed church.

Funeral services Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Routsong-Dugan funeral home in Bendersville with his pastor, the Rev. Nevin Frantz, officiating. Interment in Lower Bermudian cemetery. Friends may call Monday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock at the funeral home.

MANY HUNTERS IN FIELDS AS SEASON OPENS

Several thousand hunters took to the woods and fields this morning in Adams county along with nearly 800,000 others across the state as the annual small game season opened.

The gunners, cautioned against carelessness with fire and firearms, began the yearly trek for a shot at squirrels, rabbits or pheasants at 9 a. m., less than 24 hours after Gov. James H. Duff lifted a state-wide ban on all hunting, imposed due to the widespread danger of forest fires.

The executive issued a new proclamation a few minutes before noon yesterday lifting all restrictions on hunting, fishing and visiting of state-owned forest and game preserves.

Warns of Danger

The ban originally was imposed after a month of dry weather had turned the woodlands into a fire hazard which required four days of intermittent showers to alleviate.

"The hunting season is open but we should remember that forests are always in danger of fire," declared M. F. Draemel, state secretary of Forests and Waters in urging hunters to "use extreme care" in or near woodlands. Rains during recent days have lessened the danger, though the woods are still in a condition that calls for caution," he said.

The game commission joined in cautioning sportsmen and at the same time renewed its request that gunners hunt safely and help reduce the annual accident toll.

Urged to Save Ringnecks

The commission also reminded hunters the supply of ringneck pheasants is shorter than it has been for years and careless shooting of hen pheasants, protected this year, will only jeopardize the future of the sport.

"Save the hens if you want future sport. If you make a mistake acknowledge it promptly and save three-fourths of the fine," the commission stated.

Hunters also were asked to turn in all pheasants whose right foot bears the punch mark of the commission. They are birds raised on state game farms and marked so that the commission can check on the benefits from its enlarged stocking program.

Bag Limits

Hunting hours starting Monday are 7 a. m., to 5 p. m., except for

Britons Are Denied Private Motoring To Save Dollars

London, Nov. 1 (AP)—Britons grudgingly gave up another of their pleasures today, foregoing private motoring to save dollars by saving gasoline.

Under the British government's latest austerity order—effective last midnight—a private citizen can't drive his car at all, except on "essential business."

Officials estimate the ban will save approximately 9,000,000 pounds ($36,000,000) a year of dwindling dollar credits.

A few hours before the deadline, motorists—armed with cans, saucepans and even jugs—jammed filling stations, determined to get every drop of their ration.

"They tell me," one attendant said, "they are going to take the last drop they are entitled to and intend to put the petrol in bottles when they get home."

Effect of the travel ban will be to confine the Briton more closely to his unheated home where once he could find some solace in an extra serving of tea.

Now there isn't enough tea either. That ration recently was cut to half a pound a month—inadequate for the inhabitants of this nation of traditional tea drinkers.

Surprisingly, the people accepted the cut in tea supplies with only a mild amount of grousing. Reductions in bacon, fresh meat and other food allowances brought no organized protests.

But abolition of the basic petrol ration—enough to drive 180 miles a month—aroused a storm of opposition.

A motion for restoration of the gas ration lost in the House of Commons by only 27 votes, compared with usual government majorities of about 150.

ARRANGEMENTS MADE FOR NEXT 18 BURIALS HERE

Arrangements have been completed for interment here of 18 of the 600 overseas war dead scheduled to be buried in the Gettysburg National cemetery, Superintendent Alvin C. Baker said today.

There will be four burials a day on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, and two interments on Monday, November 10.

Full military honors will be paid the returned heroes at the graveside services with a firing squad of eight men and a bugler from Carlisle barracks scheduled to be here. Local ministers and priests will be present for the graveside services.

The four to be buried Wednesday and the hour of the service are: M-Sgt. Raymond D. Crawford, of Philadelphia, army air force, 9 a. m.; T-5 William H. Emery, New Castle, Del., army ground forces, 11 a. m.; T-5 Reginald Hector, Philadelphia, army ground forces, 1:30 p. m.; Pvt. Stephen A. Kachmar, Barnsboro, army ground forces, 3 p. m.

Kin To Come Here

Scheduled for burial Thursday are Pfc. Herbert A. Kennedy, Upper Darby, army ground forces, 9 a. m.; Pfc. Robert J. Cox, Scranton, army ground forces, 11 a. m.; T-5 Edward J. Cocis, Johnstown, army ground forces, 1:30 p. m.; Sgt. Peter Naberezny, Koppel, army air force, 3 p. m.

All of the men to be buried Friday are former members of the U. S. Navy. They include Yoeman, first class, Regis J. Bodecker, Pittsburgh, 9 a. m.; Seaman first class George J. Stembrosky, Coaldale, 11 a. m.; Storekeeper first class Minot L. Willard, Erie, 1:30 p. m.; MMR third class George Witycyak, Reading, 3 p. m.

A naval officer and a former Marine are scheduled for interment Monday, November 10. They are Lt. (jg) William Rose, of Cleveland Heights, Ohio, 9 a. m., and Cpl. Harry R. Merringer, Bellevue, U. S. Marines, 11 a. m.

Next of kin are planning to be present for the services of each of the men.

COUNTY COUPLE IS WED FRIDAY IN BIGLERVILLE

Miss Ruth Virginia Hollabaugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hollabaugh, Biglerville, and Carey Franklin Showers, son of Mrs. John Peters and the late Samuel Showers, Biglerville R. 1, were united in marriage at St. Paul's Lutheran church, Biglerville, Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock by the bride's pastor, the Rev. Henry W. Sternat. The double ring ceremony of the Lutheran church was used.

The church was decorated with baskets of white and brown pompons. The altar vases contained large white chrysanthemums.

The church organist, Mrs. Sternat, played "Because" by D'Hardelot, before the service, "I Love You Truly" during the ceremony and Mendelssohn's Wedding March during the recessional.

The bride wore a brown gabardine suit with brown accessories and a corsage of yellow carnations. The bride's mother wore a tan suit with matching accessories and a corsage of red and white carnations.

Reception Is Held

Mrs. Showers was graduated from Biglerville high school and attended the Geiger Beauty Culture school, Harrisburg. Mr. Showers is a veteran of World War II, and spent nine months in the European theater with the 35th Infantry Division. He is now employed at the Mechanicsburg Naval Depot.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for members of the immediate families.

The home was decorated with rhododendrons and white and brown fall flowers. After the reception the couple left on a wedding trip of unannounced destination. Upon their return they will reside at the home of the bride's parents.

COUNTIAN WILL RECEIVE $1,228 FOR INJURIES

The State Workmen's Insurance fund was ordered to pay $1,228.70 plus "future installments" to Walter A. Lemmon, East Berlin R. 2, in an opinion handed down by the Adams county court Friday.

Judge W. C. Sheely, in the opinion, upheld the findings of a Workmen's Compensation board which had dismissed an appeal made by the insurance fund from the award of the referee who had first heard the case.

The question raised was whether Lemmon's disability resulted from an accident within the meaning of the Workmen's Compensation Act.

Suffers Head Pains

According to the opinion Lemmon on August 7, 1945, was employed by the Pennsylvania Department of Highways to repair signs along the highway and repair surfaces and drainage. About noon, August 7, Lemmon attempted to remove an iron sign post weighing about 15 pounds located near the square in East Berlin because the post was bent in such a manner that it could not be read by motorists.

The post was imbedded in shale and was unusually difficult to loosen. Lemmon testified he had to "give it all I had" to remove the post. As the post came loose a severe pain struck the plaintiff's head, starting in the forehead and going down the back of his head and neck. He loaded the post on a truck and drove to the office of Dr. collapsed on the porch of Doctor

News Collected At Random

Colonel Thomas Nixon, formerly of Gettysburg, comes in for some nice praise from his late Army commander, General George S. Patton, Jr., in the latter's posthumous article "General Patton's Own Story" in the current issue of The Saturday Evening Post.

Wrote Patton: "Actually the remarkable movement of the 3rd Army from the Saar to the Bulge was wholly due to the superior efficiency of the 3rd Army Staff, particularly General Gay, General Muller, Colonel Nixon and Col. E. Busch, quartermaster of the 3rd Army."

Patton also penned: "The results attained were made possible only by the superlative quality of American soldiers, American men and American equipment. No country can stand against such an Army."

Calling attention to the fact that the next semi-annual motor vehicle inspection period opens November 1, the Gettysburg motor club suggests that motorists taking their cars in for an early inspection could also have their cars winterized at the same time.

"An early inspection during which the car can be winterized at the same time will avoid the necessity of a motorist making two trips to an official inspection station or garage. Not only will it save time and inconvenience to the motorist, but it will help avoid a last-minute rush," a club official pointed out.

TESTS INDICATE ATOM EFFECTS ARE INHERITED

Pasadena, Calif., Nov. 1 (AP)—Laboratory tests with corn by California Institute of Technology scientists indicate that radioactivity from the two atomic bomb explosions in Japan may result in inheritance defects producing human deformities for the next 1,000 years, says Dr. Ernest G. Anderson, biologist and professor of genetics.

Dr. Anderson, in an interview yesterday, announced that the tests were made at the institute's plant genetics garden with corn grown from seed exposed to last year's Bikini Operations Crossroads. "Although it is impossible to conduct experiments with humans, the same biological laws apply to them as apply to corn," he said.

Second Generation

These tests, he said, were the first laboratory confirmation of the theory that atomic bomb exposure can lead to inheritable defects and revealed that exposure to radioactivity disturbs chromosomal genes, the inheritance factors in cell tissue.

"Affected genes and chromosomes in some Japanese people may result in the birth of morons, cripples and deformed progeny in future generations," said Dr. Anderson, adding that the mutations (changes) did not appear in first corn plantings, but were of a recessive nature, appearing in the second generation of the plants.

"It is quote possible that these 'recessive' genes will gradually be spread throughout Japan, and many years hence, probably not in our lifetime, it would follow that much human deformity would be apparent in the offspring of that country," said Dr. Anderson.

Roy S. Smith in East Berlin. He Smith's office and remained unconscious until September 12, 1945.

In its opinion the court pointed out that Dr. Bruce N. Wolff testified that the extra exertion necessitated in pulling the post caused a cerbral hemorrhage resulting in paralysis of the left side of the claimant's body.

Awarded Damages

When Lemmon appeared before a referee of the Workmen's compensation board he was awarded damages for the "accident". The insurance fund appealed that decision, claiming that the injury was not an "accident" but the "end result of a diseased condition even though there may not, up to the date of the occurrence, be evidence of the existance of such disease." The Workmen's compensation board upheld the opinion of the referee and the insurance fund appealed the case to the Adams county courts.

In its opinion the court said that Dr. Wolffs testimony that "exertion of that type may raise your blood pressure to such extent you would burst a vessel", and proof shown that a medical examination held a month prior showing that Lemmon hadia low blood pressure proved that the injury was not due to previous disease.

Cites Precedents

The court also cited a number of precedents in which courts ordered damages paid to men who had less proof that the injury was accidental than was shown in the Lemmon case.

The court's order at the end of the opinion is that "judgment be entered in favor of the claimant, Walter A. Lemmon, and against the Pennsylvania Department of Highways and State Workmen's Insurance fund for the total amount stated by the award to be payable, to wit: the sum of $1,228.70, and for the future installments payable thereunder."

SEEK TRUCK TIRE

Blame Negligence For Steamer Blast

St. Louis, Nov. 1 (AP) — An investigator's reportd has attributed negligence by the chief engineer for an explosion and fire aboard the excursion steamer Island Queen that cost 19 lives last Sept. 9 at Pittsburgh, Pa.

The report by Capt. Ross Willoh was released by the St. Louis Coast Guard office.

The Coast Guard said a probe by Captain Willoh, marine inspector and head of an investigating board, disclosed chief engineer Fred Dickow of Concinnati, who was one of the victims, was welding near bunkers containing about 27,000 gallons of fuel oil.

The vessel owned by Coney Island, Inc., of Cincinnati, was being prepared for a regular nightly passenger trip when the disaster occurred. No passengers were aboard at the time.

Weddings

Kreitz-Eyler

A pretty wedding was solemnized Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock at St. Anthony's Shrine church when Dolores T. Eyler, daughter of Mrs. Helen Eyler and the late Roscoe Eyler became the bride of Charles Eugene Kreitz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Kreitz, both of near St. Anthony's. Rev. Thomas Reinhart, pastor of the young couple officiated.

The bride who was given in marriage by her uncle, Walter Wilhide, wore a white gown of gorgette crepe with a fitted bodice and a sweetheart neckline, short sleeves. She wore long white gloves and carried a bouquet of carnations. Her fingertip veil of net hung from a coronet of white seed pearls.

Lorraine Wilhide, cousin of the bride was maid of honor. She wore a pink lace gown over taffeta, a shoulder length veil with a halo of pink flowers and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Joyce Knott, niece of the groom and Shirley Dutrow acted as flower girls. They were dressed in blue knee length dresses with blue bows as headdresses and carried baskets of flowers.

The groom had as his best man, Frank Kreitz, his brother.

The church organist, Mrs. Ernest Seltzer, played the traditional wedding marches. During the mass the choir sang, "Mother At Your Feet We're Kneeling," "O, Lord I'm Not Worthy," and "Sou Of My Saviour." At the offertory "Ave Maria," by Gounod, was sung by Mrs. George Lingg.

The altars were decorated with fall flowers and lighted tapers.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mrs. Jessie Marshall, aunt of the bride. About fifty were present.

Both the bride and groom are employed at Mt. St. Mary's college. Mr Kreitz served several years in the U. S. Army, part of which time was spent overseas.

The couple left on a wedding trip to an unannounced destination. Upon their return they will reside at the home of the groom's parents for the present.

SNOW HAMPERS SEARCH CREWS

Ketchikan, Alaska, Nov. 1 (AP)—A deep snow blanket near the top of Mount Tamgas, on Annette Island, hampered searchers seeking today to recover bodies of 18 persons killed when a Pan American Airways plane plowed into the peak last Sunday.

Eight coast guardsmen, led by Lieut. Comdr. F. S. Schreiber, reached the wreckage late yesterday and messaged they had found four bodies, with no survivors. The plane had apparently partly burned and exploded, scattering wreckage far and wide. With improved visibility, search planes found the spot earlier yesterday.

A possible cause of the crash was advanced by William L. Baker, editor and publisher of the Ketchikan Chronicle, who said he believed the 3,610 foot elevation listed for the peak on charts was incorrect. Baker voiced his theory after accompanying search planes on their flights around Mt. Tamgas.

Baker said the altimeter of a coast guard plane in which he was flying showed 3,400 feet at the level of the wreckage and that the summit loomed several hundred feet above, apparently at 4,000 or 4,100 feet. The crash scene was about six miles from the Annette air field.

Collins Will Go Back For Leniency

Doylestown, Pa., Nov. 1 (AP)—James Robert Collins, 38-year-old escaped life termer who became a respected businessman in the past 12 years, says he is willing to return to Alabama "if there is a chance of leniency" because "I want to be cleared of this entirely."

After talking last night with two brothers who rushed from Alabama to stand by his side, Collins explained that "I'd rather have it that way, for if I remain here in Bucks county as a result of refusing to be extradited, it would almost be the same as it was before."

Collins escaped from an Alabama prison while serving a life term for acting as a lookout in a holdup in which a bank president was killed. He married and became the father of two children.

Maroons Run Wild To Crush Hershey Eleven Here 30-0

It is unfortunate that the Gettysburg high school football team has already met the top flight teams in the South Penn conference if its performance Friday night can be taken as a criterion.

Giving by far their most impressive exhibition to date, the red hot Maroons laced Hershey high 30-0 here before a crowd of a few more than 1,000 fans. Outside attractions and a raw, cold northwest wind are believed to have resulted in the slimmest crowd of the season.

But the fans who attended were treated to plenty of long runs and thrills as the Forney-men copped their third victory in their last four contests.

Hottle Runs Wild

If a star would be picked the honors would most certainly go to Big Bob Hottle, 185-pound Maroon fullback, who certainly stamped himself as an all-conference back. Bob picked up a total of 110 yards during the evening on but eight tries, and only two of his efforts were made in the second half due to being forced out of the game early in second quarter because of a minor leg injury. He electrified the fans by scampering 58 yards for a score on the first play after the kickoff and until injured early in the second quarter was unstoppable.

Jack Ridinger, Doug Knox and Herb Bowling came in for their share of laurels in the ball toting department and took over in grand fashion after Hottle was forced out. Ken Biesecker, sub ball toter, also reeled off some nice gains, one sprint of 76 yards for an apparent score being called back due to a Maroon clipping penalty. Reg Dunkinson handled the club in superb fashion.

The entire line played heads up ball throughout. Westerdahl and Donaldson at the ends, Foth and Shull at tackles, Hemingway and Dayhoff at guards and Shetter at center all came in for their share of glory by playing a hard-charging and aggressive game.

Dayhoff returned Reichenbaugh's short opening kickoff to the 42 and on the next play, Hottle, aided by beautiful blocking, broke off left tackle and streaked for a score. A pass to Westerdahl for the point failed.

Long Runs Plentiful

Late in the opening period Shull and Hemingway pounced on a Hershey fumble on the visitors' 48 and then Ridinger, Knox and Hottle reeled off two first downs to the 26 early in the second quarter but the Maroons were halted when Hottle was injured and Hershey took the ball on its 32.

Gettyburg took the ball on its 21 on a long punt by Weaver and after Ridinger picked up three yards on a plunge, Biesecker, subbing for Hottle, swept around right end for 76 yards to reach the goal line but the play was called back and a 15-yard clipping penalty inflicted on the locals. Instead of folding at that point, the Forney-men came right back. Bowling raced 18 yards for a first down on the 38. Knox and Ridinger moved the ball for a first down at midfield. Knox added a yard on a plunge. Bowling picked up seven yards around right end and then broke away on a 42-yard scamper to be knocked out at the one-yard line. On the next play Knox plunged over. A pass to Donaldson for the point was grounded.

Shull recovered a Trojan fumble on the Hershey 41 late in the third quarter and the Maroons moved from there for their third score early in the final period. Ridinger raced around left end for 31 yards and a first down on the 10. Knox and Ridinger slammed at the line for two yards and Hottle added three more on a plunge before Bill Bushman fired a pass to Donaldson in the end zone for the tally. Dunkinson's dropkick for the point was low.

Ridinger Races

Westerdahl pounced on a Hershey fumble a few plays later on the visitors' 36 and the Maroons were off to their fourth touchdown. Dunkinson hit Donaldson with a pass for a first down on the 22. Bowling made a first down on the 9 on three stabs and then Knox smashed over from that spot. Another pass to Donaldson for the point failed.

Ridinger intercepted a Trojan pass on his own 40 a few minutes later and raced to Hershey's 43. After Knox picked up seven yards through left tackle Ridinger smacked through center, came up all alone and raced straight to pay dirt unmolested. Dunkinson's dropkick for the point was wide.

In the dying minutes of play substitutes from both squads took over the action.

Gettysburg rolled up 11 first downs to seven for Hershey. The Maroons took to the air six times and were successful on one. The visitors made good on six of 17 aerials.

Hershey Band Impresses

The big Hershey high band put on a brilliant exhibition at half time with many intricate formations.

Next Friday evening the Maroons close their season by entertaining Mechanicsburg here.

TEAM PLAY IS NITTANY SECRET

State College, Pa., Nov. 1 (AP)—Coach Bob Higgins admits its an old bromide but there's no other way of explaining Penn State's unbeaten football team than to say it's team play.

Higgins has only to point at the statistics and he leaves very little room for argument as the Nittany Lions try to make Colgate their sixth straight victim today.

The records show this:

1. A second string fullback is the leading ground gainer.

2. A reserve wingback tops the scorers.

The team is first among collegiate football teams defensively having allowed but 69 yards per game in five contests.

4. The team is first in rushing nationally and second only to Michigan in total offense.

5. Very few of the first stringers have seen on the average of more than two periods of action so far this season.

The strength of Penn State lies in numbers. The wealth of backs is indicated with the return to action of Johnny Chuckran, Lansford, Pa., back who was a sensation in 1944 as a freshman. Chuckran has been on the injured list and now he's fit and raring to go but he'll be lucky to get into a ball game with such performers as Elwood Petchell, Larry Joe, Frank Rogell, Wally Triplett, Jeff Durkota and Joe Colone grinding out yardage.

LOWER PAXTON TRIPS CANNERS BY 31-12 SCORE

Coach Bo Capello's Lower Paxton high school Rangers snapped a two-game losing streak by whipping Biglerville high, 31 to 12, on the Island Field, Harrisburg, Friday night.

Lower Paxton has now won five and lost two while Biglerville has won three out of seven.

The lead was taken in the first period by Biglerville when Jim Pitzer cracked the line to score from the two at the end of a 75-yard drive. Lower Paxton marched 67 yards, Bill Allen scoring, in the second session and another touchdown before the end of the half on a pass from Lee Campbell to Allen who ran 27 yards.

Herb Shambaugh and Bob Kepler tallied for the winners in the third session. Grim went over for Biglerville in the last quarter, after which Dave Shadel tallied from the three. Kenny Nickle had set up the score by running 35 yards after taking a pass from Boynton.

Next Thursday evening Columbia plays Biglerville on the latter's field in a Booster Night game for the upper countians.

TOP PRO GRID TEAMS CLASH

New York, Nov. 1 (AP)—The leaders in both of professional football's major leagues run smack into one another tomorrow and, instead of the traditional dull, sickening thud, the result is likely to be a touchdown-scattering explosion.

In the National league it's Jock Sutherland's sly Steelers of Pittsburgh against Curly Lambeau's Green Bay Packers at Milwaukee. The All-America conference feature sends the Cleveland Browns to Buffalo for a return engagement with the Bills.

The Chicago Cardinals have to beat the tough Los Angeles Rams, who gave them a 27-7 licking two weeks ago, in order to be sure of holding their half interest in the divisional lead. The Philadelphia Eagles, second to Pittsburgh, visit Washington to meet the Redskins in a game that may have an important bearing on the Eastern title race. Other games send the Chicago Bears, tied with Los Angeles, to Boston and the win-less New York Giants to Detroit.

The conference Yankees have a fairly easy assignment against the battered Baltimore Colts while the San Francisco 49ers and Los Angeles Dons tussle over second place in the Western division of the conference.

Brooklyn slipped into second place in the All-America's Eastern division after having been tied with Baltimore by defeating the winless Chicago Rockets 7-3 at Ebbets Field last night. Only 2,960 fans braved the steady downpour.

MISSIONARY SLAIN

Pittsburgh, Nov. 1 (AP)—Mrs. Mary Devine of Pittsburgh, says the Dominican Order has informed her that her missionary son, the Rev. Fr. James Devine, 42, is dead in China after being captured by bandits who burned his mission in Fukien province last May 14. The bandits asked ransom, it was offered but never claimed.

Bullet Harriers Defeat Muhlenberg

The Gettysburg college cross-country runners won their second straight meet by defeating Muhlenberg here Friday afternoon 22-33.

The order of the finishers and their times follow: Smith, G, 17:04; Merry, G, 17:05; Fleshman, M, 17:44; Albert, M, 17:54; Yost, G, 17:57; Hoos, G, 18:03; Summers, M, 18:05; Hamme, G, 18.08; Ayres, G, 18:27; Brown, M, 20:06; Summerville, G, 20:35.

COLLEGE FROSH WALLOP MULES BY 32-0 COUNT

A heavy, aggressive Gettysburg college freshman football team romped to an easy 32-0 victory over the Muhlenberg frosh on Memorial Field Friday afternoon before approximately 500 chilled fans.

The Little Bullets completely outclassed their opponents from start to finish. At no time did Muhlenberg offer a serious threat for a score. The victory was the second in as many games for Gettysburg.

Coach Leroy Bloomingdale unfolded three nice running backs in Dick Beaver, Don Young and John Neff who were consistent ground gainers. Meanwhile the forward wall put up a great game both offensively and defensively and smothered the Mule ball carriers time and again for substantial losses.

Late in the opening period Muhlenberg was forced to punt from its own 10-yard line, the ball going out on the Mule 31 from where the Bullets moved to their first tally, Swope passing 20 yards to Don Emert on the goal line. Another pass by the same combination accounted for the extra point.

An intercepted pass by Jack Jones on the Mule 17 in the second period set the stage for another Bullet score, Jones plunging over from the foot-line a few plays later. Neff's plunge for the point failed.

Score On Aerials

Early in the third period Larry Butler intercepted a pass on the Mule 35 and then Swope and Emert clicked for another touchdown pass for 30 yards. A pass for the point was grounded.

Clicking for their third touchdown heave, Swope whipped a 40-yard pass to Emert early in the last period and then Neff bucked over for the point.

The final Bullet score came late in the last quarter when Gettysburg took over on the visitors' 35 through a poor kick and Swope galloped 13 yards followed by three straight drives by Young, the last being good for 10 yards and a tally. Young added the point on a placement.

Elmo Jackson, highly touted ex-Allentown high luminary, was well bottled up by the Orange and Blue lads although he managed to break away for 13 yards on one run in the first half.

WEST CHESTER DEFEATS RIDER

Philadelphia, Nov. 1 (AP) — West Chester State Teachers' college still rode the football victory trail today after a 35-0 rout of Rider college of Trenton, N. J.

And while the teachers had their seventh straight win safely stored away other Pennsylvania college elevens today looked to better their season's records with Pennsylvania and Penn State expected to continue their all-victorious ways.

Joe Carlozo and Johnny Antoni each scored two touchdowns in West Chester's win before 2,500 last night at West Chester. Carlozo sprinted 15 yards for one score and 60 yards for another. Antoni bulled over from the two and ran 53 yards for his second TD. Harrison Stump scooped up a blocked punt and ran 15 yards for the fifth West Chester score. Ray Diserafino converted all five extra points.

At Bethlehem, Moravian college spotted Ithaca a two-touchdown lead and then turned on the heat to register a 20-13 victory with Frank Weaver passing 13 yards to George Fritchman late in the last quarter for the deciding tally.

In two other games last night St. Francis college of Latrobe toyed with Rio Grande college of Ohio for a 47-0 victory before 2,000 at Altoona and California State Teachers ran rough shod over Salem college 40-6 at Clarksburg, W. Va.

PIAA BOARD TO MEET SUNDAY

Harrisburg, Nov. 1 (AP)—Continuation of interscholastic competition between the state's public and Catholic schools was scheduled for consideration at the annual meeting of the Pennsylvania interscholastic athletic association's board of control oening here tomorrow.

In the original announcement of the board of control meeting it was stated that the first session would be held tonight, but Edmund Wicht, executive secretary of the association, said that no business session was planned and nothing would be done except to set up the agenda for tomorrow's opening session.

The board of control was expected to act favorably on proposals to bring the PIAA and the Pennsylvania Catholic interscholastic association a bit closer on the questions of the migratory rule and part-time coaches.

A joint committee of representatives of the public and Catholic schools was ready to submit a report calling for amicable adjustment of the coaching rule differences.

The Catholic group proposed that all part-time coaches at Catholic schools must be approved first by the superintendent of the Catholic diocese where the school is located, then by the principal of the Catholic high school, and finally by the district committee of the PIAA district in which the Catholic school is located.

Lesnevich Beats Tami Mauriello

New York, Nov. 1 (AP)—Gus Lesnevich today held the Shaughnessy playoff championship over Tami Mauriello as well as the world's light heavyweight title.

Lesnevich had beaten the Bronx barkeep in all three of their previous fights and if Mauriello had any doubts as to who was master it was very brutally removed last night in Madison Square garden.

The Cliffside Park, N. J., 175-pound king cut par for the course in his fourth chance before a crowd of 14,079. Mauriello had gone the route with Lesnevich in the first three but Referee Ruby Goldstein stipped last night's slaughter after 33 seconds of the seventh round and he might very well have curtailed the pig-sticking several rounds earlier. Lesnevich's title was not at stake.

Mauriello went down only once, a nine count in the fourth, result of a left to the jaw. But he was a doomed man from the first round on. Although outweighed 180½ to 201½ Lesnevich carried the fight from the opening bell.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, Nov. 1 (AP) — The University of Maryland has installed four television receivers in its gymnasium and scattered others at vantage points around the campus so that everyone can get a look at today's West Virginia game in spite of an over-crowded stadium. That idea might be used to solve the problems of big crowds vs. small gyms during the basketball season. . . . Bill Gimbel of Chicago, is starting his 31st year of bowling in one league without having missed a single game. He's after the record of another Chicagoan, Harry Steers, who retired after 34 unbroken seasons. . . . Has anyone pointed out that baseball's "high school" rule was the result of a two-way agreement in which the National Federation of State High School Athletic associations agreed to put more emphasis on baseball in return for immunity from player-snatching?

GOOD LUCK STORY

Cal Abrams, the Brooklyn-reared Rookie whom the Dodgers recently brought up from Mobile, couldn't buy a hit when he was playing on a sandlot team at Sheepshead Bay in 1942. Dodger Scouts, who had a string on him, considered converting him into a pitcher because he had a great arm and they thought he'd never be a hitter. But when an Olean outfielder broke a leg, Manager Jake Pitler was so hard pressed that he figured anyone would do and took Abrams. . . . Cal merely hit .327 for the rest of the season and has made marks of .331 and .345 in his two seasons since leaving the Army.

RYDER PLAYS OPEN TODAY

Portland, Ore., Nov. 1 (AP)—Paced, encouraged and exhorted by their determined leader, Henry Cotton, British golf professionals were ready this morning for the first joust with American rivals in a two-day effort to achieve what predecessors have failed—win the Ryder cup, on United States soil.

Cotton, 40-year-old captain of the Invaders, paired up with Arthur Lees, another Englishman, as the No. 1 team from across the Atlantic. Their opponents in the Scotch foursome—two balls in use with players hitting alternate shots—were El "Porky" Oliver and U. S. Open Champion Lew Worsham.

Oliver and Worsham were designated as the No. 1 American team by Captain Ben Hogan who assigned himself and Jimmy Demaret to play in the third starting position.

NLRB CHECKS COMPLIANCES

Washington, Nov. 1 (AP)—The National Labor Relations Board today began winnowing through hundreds of last minute union compliances with the non-Communist provision of the Taft-Hartley act.

Just under the wire was the big CIO United Auto Workers union, whose executive board reversed a previous stand and advised the NLRB the necessary papers would be filed as soon as possible.

The AFL United Mine Workers headed by John L. Lewis and the CIO Steelworkers were left out in the cold by their own choice.

Both stood pat, past list midnight's deadline, on their refusal to file the non-Communist pledges and financial statements required by the law. This means the 350,000 UMW members and the 800,000 steelworkers are barred from services of the NLRB.

The steelworkers, however, stepped in at the eleventh hour with a challenge expected to lay the groundwork for a court test of the board's power to make the non-Communist rule stick. The United Auto Workers, despite their compliance, had taken a similar legal step.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

THE UNDISCOVERED

No matter how many times I may have read a book, or read in it at odd moments, there seems to be always something else there yet to be discovered. It's like looking upon some favorite scene under a different lighting, or at a different season, when the mood has changed or mellowed.

There are those of our friends whom we may have known for years — yet with most of their area of mind and heart still undiscovered. It is this undiscovered in people, who are most worth while to us, that gives us such a joy of satisfaction when first encountered. Journeying into the realm of another mind may have far greater profit for any one of us than to take an extended journey into a foreign land, returning not having learned its significance.

The human being is a curious animal. From earliest childhood to the very end is this true. We want to learn. We want to know. And we want to know why. I like the words over the grave of Green, the English historian. It said: "He died learning."

Had it not been for the curiosity of those who were the early discoverers of this Western World, never would this great continent be what it is today. They were intrepid men, full of dreams and courage. What a thrill it must have been when the first white man looked upon the Pacific Ocean, from what is now known as the "Golden Gate"!

Nothing is so interesting and significant as the unfolding of a personality. Discovering latent and undiscovered talents. How many there are who boast of the fact that they "discovered" this person or that one. A worthy boast, at that, if the discovery later results in that person also discovering himself.

We live in an age of discoveries, but we have yet to find a permanent method by which we can happily live at peace around the world. For example, just suppose a certain few of the representatives of nations in the United Nations organization should suddenly become aware of the existence of the "Golden Rule" as a practical proposition —wouldn't that be a wonderful discovery, especially if put to use?

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Cheerfulness."

EDGAR A GUEST

THE WELCOME MAN

You'll be welcome at all doorways if a twinkle's in your eye.
Friends will ask you to their parties if you're seldom known to sigh.
If you hide your various troubles underneath a merry grin,
You will be a favorite member of whatever group you're in.

If with patience you will listen to another's tale of woe,
You will gain a friend forever wheresoever you may go.
But you'll lose one in that moment when he makes his trouble known
If you dare to interrupt him to inform him of your own.

It's a curious world we live in; men and women in a throng
Who must somehow with each other find the way to get along.
And there isn't any grown-up, north or south or east or west,
But has suffered disappointment and has heartache in the breast.

If your eyes can hold a twinkle and you've merriment to share
And you never tell your troubles you'll be welcome anywhere.
If you keep your nature cheerful and a frown you never show,
Friends will smile to see you coming and be sorry when you go.

FORESEE FEW 1948 TRENDS IN ELECTIONS

Washington, Nov. 1 (AP) — Although the Taft-Hartley law and high prices have figured in some races, politicians look for few 1948 "trends" in next Tuesday's off-year state and municipal elections.

An apparently close contest for the Kentucky governorship, now held by a Republican as the result of a 1943 upset, holds prime interest from a national standpoint.

There also will be a six-way Democratic race for the Senate seat of the late Theodore G. Bilbo in Mississippi, three special House elections to fill vacancies in Ohio, Indiana, and New York, veterans' bonus referenda in Ohio and New York, and scores of county and municipal elections.

A fourth Congressional vacancy will be filled in Massachusetts November 18.

Fights In South

The House seats at stake Tuesday were held by Republicans in Ohio's 4th and Indiana's 10th districts, and by a Democrat in New York's 14th. The Massachusetts 9th district seat was held by a Republican. No upsets in these districts are expected by leaders of either party.

Seven special House elections have been held so far this year without a single turnover.

Kentucky governor candidates are U. S. Rep. Earle C. Clements, Democrat, who voted against the Taft-Hartley law, and State Attorney General Eldon S. Dummit, Republican. Clements is backed by organized labor but has not discussed the new labor measure. Republicans have attempted to make that act the "main issue."

Mississippi elects a senator to the seat to which Bilbo was reelected last November but never filled. Six Democrats, including Reps. Rankin and Colmer, are contesting for the seat, along with one Republican. The campaign has aroused only slight interest in the state.

Vote On Bonus

New York votes on a proposed constitutional amendment to permit an estimated $400,000,000 bonus to 1,600,000,000 veterans of World War II, to be financed by a bond issue. The latter would be redeemed by boosts in the state cigarette and income taxes.

Ohio votes on veterans' bonus amendment providing up to $300,000,000. Of the total $275,000,000 would come from a bond issue and the rest would be appropriated from the state's surplus funds.

New Jersey ballots on a new state constitution to replace one adopted in 1844, and state legislators.

CIVIL SERVICE JOBS

The United States Civil Service commission has announced an examination for office appliance operators, at salaries ranging from $1,756 to $2,664 a year. Applications close November 20. Further information can be obtained from Jesse Snyder, local secretary, at the post office.

Positions for which exams will be held include card punch operator, both alphabetic and numeric, tabulating machine operator, tabulating equipment operator, blueprint operator, and photostat operator.

East Berlin

East Berlin.—Mr. and Mrs. John G. Leib and daughter, Miss Erma Jean Leib, who moved from here a few years ago to their former home in Malta, Mont., are expected to return here shortly to reside at the R. 3 house which they had rented to the Cline Bassett family during their absence. The Bassetts now reside on the Buscaglia farm near town. The Leibs' elder daughters, Mrs. Glenn C. Cashman and Mrs. John E. Gentzler, Jr., make their homes here with their families.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Benedick, Mechanicsburg, were entertained on Sunday at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Livingston.

The freshman class of the local high school has been submitting to its annual hazing this week and members are walking around in baby bonnets with hunting licenses across their backs.

The former Livingston homestead in the Brown's dam area near here, now the property of the Charles Albright family, has undergone extensive improvement of late, with a bathroom and furnace installed and a new chimney erected.

Thank offering service is scheduled for 7:30 Sunday evening at Trinity Lutheran church of which the Rev. Snyder Alleman is pastor.

Mrs. Jacob D. Grove, who recently returned from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Elmer Paxton, York R. 1, is now confined to bed at the home of another daughter, Mrs. Robert S. Lau, with whom she resides. Mrs. Paxton has been here this week to assist in her care. Mr. Grove, who has been confined to Mrs. Lau's home for more than a year, is unimproved.

Frances, Claire and Paul Hertz, children of Mr. and Mrs. William Hertz, Jr., Harrisburg, have been guests at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Jacobs. Mrs. Hertz is the former Miss Ruth R. Jacobs.

Boys of the vocational classes of the local high school have been making the concrete blocks to go into the building of the new "emergency" building at the school, being rapidly erected to house the increased number of students who have enrolled this term.

Local relatives have received invitations to the wedding of Miss Janet Lorraine Howard, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor H. Howard, Brooklyn, N. Y., to John Thomas Kennedy of the same city, who will be married Saturday morning, November 8, at St. Francis of Assisi Catholic church, Brooklyn. Miss Howard has done fashion modelling for several years and upon one occasion was chosen to pose as a bride for the cover of McCall's Magazine. Her father spent vacations in this section as a boy on the farm of his uncle, the late John R. Kuhn, and the Howards have been visitors to Adams county within recent years.

The Oliver Myers home at the West End has recently undergone a repainting job.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Sheridan C. Wentz, York, has been named John Stephen. Mrs. Wentz is the former Miss Jennie Mae Jacobs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mervin D. Jacobs, R. 2.

Littlestown

The Adams County Past Grands Association, IOOF, which includes the lodges of York Springs, Bendersville, Fairfield, Gettysburg and Littlestown, will meet in the lodge rooms of Sylvania Lodge No. 613, Littlestown on November 10.

Mrs. Charles Hofe, president of the Ladies' Aid Society of Redeemer's Reformed church has announced that they will conduct a cafeteria supper and bazaar in the social hall of the church, Saturday, November 15, from 4 to 8 p. m. Among the things served will be baked beans, escalloped potatoes, potato salad, fried oysters, creamed chicken, pepper slaw, home-baked pie and cake.

RESHUFFLING OF FRENCH CABINET EXPECTED SOON

Paris, Nov. 1 (AP)—Parliamentarians and even associates of Socialist Premier Paul Ramadier declared Friday that the present middle-of-the road French government would have to be reshuffled again soon, despite Thursday's vote of confidence in the national assembly.

The vote for the government—300 to 280, with 18 abstentions—followed two days of fist-shaking, name calling debate, but despite the excitement, many deputies appeared more interested in discussions outside the chamber about the possible future makeup of Ramadier's cabinet.

Many deputies expressed belief that the government would have to be shaken up within a month so as to bring in such figures as Leon Blum, former premier and elder statesman of the socialist party, and Paul Reynaud, an independent rightist who was the last premier before the fall of France.

Vote Disappointing

Ramadier streamlined his cabinet only last week by trimming the number of ministers from 25-12 Socialists, six popular Republicans, five radical Socialists, and two Independents—to 13: seven Socialists, three popular Republicans, two radical Socialists and one Independent.

Many political observers feel that a further reshuffling of the cabinet will be necessary because the center position upon which Ramadier is trying to base his government—somewhere between the extremes of communism and De Gaullism—is too violently opposed to his economic policies of tight price and business controls.

Thursday's vote of confidence, in which Ramadier's margin of victory fell short of what some observers thought he would get, found 159 popular Republicans, 104 Socialists, 22 Radical-Socialists and 15 Independents arrayed for the government.

Opposing Ramadier were the solid bank of 180 communists, 34 extreme Rightists, 26 Democratic Socialists unionists (mostly De Gaullists), 17 Independents, 14 Radical Socialists, six North African deputies and two popular Republicans.

Virginia Mills

Virginia Mills—Mr. and Mrs. Carl Yoder and children, Judy and Larry Essex, Baltimore, were week-end guests of Mrs. Yoder's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Currens, and family.

The Rev. Amos Funk, Chambersburg, was a guest for several days this week in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Lightner and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Metz and families.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Black and son, of Waynesboro, were guests Sunday of Mrs. Black's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sanders.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Wagner, Washington, D. C., spent the week-end at the Wagner cottage at this place.

Luther Lightner spent the past week-end with Mrs. Lightner and family, Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Feister, Caledonia, spent the past week-end at the home of Mrs. Feister's mother, Mrs. Carrie Kepner.

Mrs. Charles Bowers and son, Earl, of Taneytown and Baltimore, were guests Sunday at the home of Mrs. Bowers' sister, Mrs. Harry Kint, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lightner and family, Punxsutawney, were recent guests at the home of William Kepner, this place.

Bethlehem Steel Studies Stock Spilt

New York, Nov. 1 (AP) — Stockholders of Bethlehem Steel corporation will be called to meet December 23 to approve a recommendation by directors that the common stock be split three-for-one effective at the end of the year.

Also proposed is an increase in authorized shares to 20,000,000 from 5,000,000. After distributing two additional shares to the holder of each of the present 2,984,994 outstanding, the corporation would have some 9,000,000 outstanding shares and retain 11,000,000 authorized but unissued.

E. G. Grace, Bethlehem chairman, announced the split proposal at a press conference following a directors' meeting at which the usual $1.50 dividend on common stock was declared, payable December 1 to holders of record November 10.

He declined to predict what dividends might be paid on the new stock, but said he saw "no depression at the moment, nothing but capacity demand."

Large Balance In Jobless Pay Fund

Harrisburg, Nov. 1 — Pennsylvania's unemployment compensation had a balance of $601,000,000 today even though contribution rates of employers are at the lowest rate in history.

The 1947 Legislature continued the wartime experience rating system of calculating jobless benefit taxes and at the same time reduced the rate scale from the range of one per cent to 2.7 per cent to one half of one per cent to 2.7 per cent as long as present employment levels are maintained.

The state Bureau of Unemployment Compensation of the Department of Labor and Industry found the fund total was $600,411,000 on October 1 while the total wages paid was $6,130,945,000.

"That established a ratio of 9.43 per cent which gave quite a leeway over the stabilization factor of 3.1 per cent," a spokesman explained.

INVALID NAMED CARNEGIE HERO

Pittsburgh, Nov. 1 (AP)—A Punxsutawney invalid was one of 23 persons awarded bronze medals by the Carnegie Hero Fund commission for outstanding acts of heroism during the past year.

The commission also granted pensions totalling $1,080 a year in two cases, and $600 in another. Awards amounting to $6,750 were made to finance education, home purchases and "other worthwhile purposes."

The Pennsylvania hero was Michael Albanite, 49, who plunged into floodswollen Elk run to save seven year old J. Earl Woodford on June 21, 1946.

The citation told this story of Albanite's feat:

"Earl fell into flooded Elk run and drifted in water four feet deep in a current of two miles an hour. Albanite, who suffered from a serious heart ailment, ran 150 feet to the bank, jumped eight feet into the water and groped with his hands for Earl who drifted against him.

"Albanite carried him up a steep bank, where a man relieved him of Earl. Albanite suffered a heart attack as the result of his act and was confined to his bed for 40 days. He recovered to his normally impaired condition."

Six Ohioans were awarded similar bronze medals. Michigan, California and Texas each had three awards. Montana and New York had two and single awards were made in Oklahoma, Wisconsin and Quebec, Can.

by FREDERICK C. RUSSELL

Member S.A.E.

It's often a grave error when a speeder makes a mistake.

You'll have better luck with the motor this coming cold weather season if you make it a point now to check over the crankcase ventilating system. The chances are that it is partially clogged. That means less opportunity for vapors to be expelled from the crankcase; more diluent in the oil. If you don't know where the vents are, better ask your mechanic to check them. Another thing you can do, if obliged to make a number of short runs, in colder weather, is to take advantage of nearby hills to get the oil warmed up. A good, hard climb will vaporize a lot of diluent, but the plan isn't successful if the vents are clogged with dirt.

Something New In Tests

You may know that if the brake master cylinder's compensating port doesn't properly uncover there will be a pressure build-up within the system and self-application, but how to make sure this condition does or doesn't exist is quite a different story. However, I am glad to report to you that it is a comparatively simple one. All you need do is remove this filler cap of the master cylinder's reservoir and insert a small, stiff and perfectly straight piece of wire. Push it straight down when the brakes are released and fish for the small opening of the compensating port. If resistance is felt you will know that the port is partially clogged or that the brake pedal needs readjusting so that the skirt of the cup clears the port.

Just a word of caution on this. Ahead of the compensating port is the release post. Be sure you do not push the wire into this one instead and be misled into thinking that all is well.

Keep This In Mind

An ideal time to consider having the car repainted is when the finish has gone dull but is still free from rust spots.

It still saves gas, and the motor, to speed up upon approaching a hill, even though the engine is quite capable of climbing the grade slowly and of accelerating anywhere you desire.

The reason your relined brakes do not seem to be so much more powerful than before the job is merely because they removed brake dust. When more dust develops there will be an increase in braking power. Too much dust is always a disadvantage.

Mechanic Joe Speaking:

"If your overhauled engine is using a lot of oil you should be thankful, although my surmise is that you are fit to be tied. The truth is that when an engine has been rebored or fitted with new sleeves it needs the extra oiling just because it is old. Figure for a moment what the situation really is.

"Just because the engine is old its water jackets are pretty well coated with scale and lime deposits. That is insulation. Heat from the cylinders is going to have a harder time reaching the cooling water. Thus there is more heat at the cylinders and more need for oil to keep them happy. Of course, the new rings have to control the oil so that not too much will work up along the walls, but some oil must be used to keep the set-up efficient. You can't expect the same oil economy as with a new engine even though the rebored job seems to be running better than new."

First Things First

Now is the time for all good motorists to get busy checking over the cooling system in an effort to detect and check any leakage which may have developed. The usual procedure is to make this search after anti-freeze has been installed, which is putting the cart before Dobbin. I'll grant you that the permanent types of anti-freeze will often develop leakage which didn't appear when plain water was used, but such leakage is minor by comparison with the garden variety which can, and does, develop any time. This may be the opportunity to replace the hot water heater hosing and to check it for veral days after. Perhaps the cylinder head nuts should be drawn down a bit tighter. And one of those cylinder block core plugs may be leaking.

Where Courtesy Pays

I am not legal minded enough to know all the reasons involved, but apparently when you ram into the rear of another car it pays to get out and express your apologies even though there is no apparent damage. When I stopped for a police controlled light in yesterday's traffic someone behind wasn't looking and used my rear bumper for a brake. I felt rather secure in the hulk of my own chariot and did not get out to inspect or to remonstrate. When I started up again the officer stepped out from the curb, stopped the driver behind and gave him a ticket.

One of the basic rules of the road is to keep your car under control at all times.

Some Won't Come Back

If you are unable to bring back the car's original lustre, even after a thorough polishing, don't jump to the conclusion that you are not as expert as your next door neighbor who may have spent a recent weekend making his old jalopy look like new. Consider first the possible difference in color. Maroons and blues are more difficult to revive than grays and blacks. Then, too, there may be a difference in the kind of dullness which the car acquires. A car that has been exposed to an undue amount of sunlight and particularly moisture will fade to a point where its finish can't usually be called back. But if the dullness is merely traffic film it can be easily removed by application of lacquer polish. Use the kind without wax. After a bright finish is acquired then wax with the paste variety.

Leaks Through Insulation

There would be a lot better ignition these days if more motorists would realize that wiring does not need to be cracked to leak. High tension current will leak through any but the best insulation. That is why old wiring either should be replaced or coated with one of the special paints for this purpose. In using this on the distributor cap be sure to open up any vents which may be in the cap, otherwise the distributor parts may sweat and rust.

They Make Safety Sense

That raised window to your left spoils your chances for more prompt emergency hand signalling. Cold weather thus slows down signalling efficiency and calls for compensations in the way of greater caution.

Where you are obliged to do a lot of shifting, and the car is equipped with a conventional clutch pedal, better leave the headlights set for the depressed beam when driving at night. You'll find it confusing to operate the dimmer switch and the clutch at the same time.

If the hand brake operates through the rear wheel brakes you will know by its failure to hold well that the brake shoes need readjusting or relining. It's a handy check on the efficiency of the rear service brakes.

Questions Of The Week

Q. I don't know whether this comes under the heading of mechanical troubles but the left rear door on my car bothers me a lot. I have to slam it to make it catch. Can you tell me why? R.W.E.

A. You will probably find that the door has more crown at the belt line than the adjoining pillar of the car's body. It's a job for a body man.

Q. The clutch of my car has developed a lot of chatter. I notice you have gone into this subject many times, but I'm not sure just which story applies in my case. This trouble developed after the car was used for instructing two members of the family how to drive. G.McB.

A. Don't let's go into any technicalities with this. The chances are that here we have a plain case of a warped pressure plate due to the Orrtanna—M.-Sgt. and Mrs. Merl H. Nary have returned to the state of Washington after a three-day visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Nary. M.-Sgt. Nary, who has been in the Navy and Army for the past 16 years, is now stationed in the state of Washington.

Orrtanna

Other visitors at the J. H. Nary home over the week-end were their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Nary, of Elizabeth, New Jersey, and another son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Nary, and family, of Waynesboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Kump spent the week-end at Shady Grove as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Downing.

Mr. and Mrs. Blair Biesecker and son, Jimmy, of York, spent Sunday with relatives and friends here.

A roast turkey supper was served recently at the Jefferson Hunting lodge near Mt. Carmel church to the Orrtanna baseball club. Members of the club present were: Clark, Doyle and Stanley Rebert, John Wetzel, Ken, Herbert, Ross and Jerre Deardorff, Burnell Cease, Douglas Donaldson, Chester Cornwell and Ira Herring. Ticket sellers Russel and Richard Sharrah, umpires Paul Bream and Harold Rebert, and Ray Deardorff, chef.

Wilmer Wetzel accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wampler, of Arendtsville, to Baltimore on Sunday where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Donald Baker, son-in-law and daughter of Mrs. Wetzel and cousins of Mrs. Wampler.

The number of passengers carried by U. S. railroads quadrupled between 1940 and 1944.

In 1944, the United States devotel nearly 40 per cent of its output to war needs.

There's EXTRA VALUE in the Tire that

OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES

It's time to measure what you get for what you pay. No matter what you buy, the measure of true worth is in performance . . . how long it will serve you.

In tires there are several yardsticks . . . mileage, protection against bruising and road shocks, resistance to skidding. In all of these, the B.F.Goodrich Silvertown gives you extra value.

Its wider, flatter tread which covers more road area, spreads the wear more evenly. The more tire in contact with the road also means more tread to grip . . . to prevent skidding. Beneath this better tread is a 35% stronger cord body built with sturdier cords and more of them to give better resistance to road shock and bruising.

All this Extra Value adds up to today's big tire buy . . . the postwar B. F. Goodrich Silvertown — the tire that OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES.

Long, Romantic History Of Apple Recalled This Week

The national observance of "Apple Week" focuses attention not only on the promotional angles of this fruit, but brings forth some new and interesting information on the history of this "gift of the gods."

The Appalachian Apple Service, which includes in its membership 600 growers of apples in Pennsylvania, Maryland and the Virginias, says in a booklet put out for "Apple Week" that "apples, romance and history have been inseparably mingled since the dawn of history."

The Appalachian service says apples are the oldest of known fruits.

In Garden of Eden

"So far as is known," the booklet continues, "they originated in the Caspian Sea (Asia) region, not far from the Garden of Eden.

"Apples grow there today—only one to two inches in diameter, acid and astringent, parents of today's succulent, delicious and big, juicy Stayman. But the family tree of the King of Fruits spreads all over the world. The apple is first cousin to the rose; is of the Rosaceae family. Note the close resemblance between apple blossoms and wild rose blossoms.

"Both are grown literally worldwide; Siberia, China, Japan, Europe, both American continents; while the oldest apple known is a mummy discovered in a Switzerland cavern.

A World Crop

"The world crop of apples approximates 500 million bushels, estimates U.S. Department of Agriculture, of which the United States grows about one third.

"The apple, in fact and in fable," says the booklet, "has influenced the course of history. Eve selected the apple from all the fruits in the Garden of Eden for the tempting of Adam, say the poets (not the Bible). Helen of Troy hung a kingdom upon an apple; and Atalanta lost a world-shaping race by stopping to pick up the golden apples. Solomon called for them when his kingly diet palled, and sang odes to apples. Rebellious William Tell, and startled Isaac Newton, and gaunt Johnny Appleseed planting his precious seeds from New England west into Illinois—all these are a part of the saga of the apple.

"In Biblical times the apple was given to the sick to smell. In the "Edda" of Scandinavian mythology, Iduna, the goddess, is said to have charge of the apples which had the power of conferring immortality and which in consequence of their miraculous properties, were especially retained by the gods to eat when they felt themselves growing old.

Known In Folk Lore

"The evil spirit, Loki, carried off Iduna and the wonderful apple tree, and hid them away in a forest where the gods could not find them. The result of this spiteful theft was that everything went wrong, both in this world and in the Heavens. The gods grew old and infirm and were no longer able to control the affairs of the earth, until, by combining their powers, they overcame Loki and compelled him to restore the apple tree.

"British folklore is full of the wonder of the applea. In Herefordshire, Devonshire and Cornwall the farmers still preserve the ancient custom of saluting the apple trees on Christmas eve. They walk in procession, visiting the principal orchards of the parish. In each orchard one tree is selected as the representative of all; this is saluted with certain words which have the air of incantation, and the tree is either sprinkled with cider or a bowl of cider is dashed against it, to insure a plentiful crop.

"There is the famous Devonshire rhyme which we have all heard in some form:

"'Ate an apfel avore gwain to bed
Makes the doctor beg his bread.'

"They would cut an apple in two, rub it on warts to cure them, tie it together again and bury it. In Lincolnshire, to cure eyes afflicted with rheumatism, a poultice of rotten apples is applied.

Indians Had Orchards

"As to the apple on the North American continent, traders and missionaries to the Indians reported that Indian villages often had orchards of seedling apples and peaches. Historians like to think that the Jamestown first settlers and the Pilgrim Fathers brought apple seeds or grafted trees with them, and that apples started hence on this continent. We not-too-humbly doubt that. Anyhow, apples were here with, if not before, the white man.

"As early as 1647, apples are recorded as being grafted on wild stock in Virginia. In 1686, one William Fitzhugh had 'a large orchard of about 2,500 trees, most grafted and well feneed. . . .' In 1726, a New Englander, Dudley, records that 'Our people of late years have run so much upon orchards that in a village near Boston, consisting of forty families, they made near ten thousand barrels of cider.'

"Apples are the nation's (and the world's) largest fruit crop; 124 million bushels is the 10-year average crop in the United States; enough apples to fill a solid train of a quarter-million refrigerator cars, 245 miles long; almost a bushel (150 apples, average) for every man, woman and child in the United States.

Hard-earned Progress

"The big, juice-filled, white-fleshed apple we crunch today has been hard-earned. Methods of budding and grafting (essentials to apple breeding) were known more than 2,000 years ago, and experiment-minded men have been hard at work at producing better apples ever since. Cato, famed Roman of 300 B.C., knew seven varieties of apples; while Pliny, 100 A.D., knew 36 kinds.

"Producing a new variety of apple can be the easiest, or about the hardest, job in the world. The apple does not come true from seed. Every apple seed that sprouts originates a new variety, practically. Only when scions from a tree of the desired variety have been grafted or budded onto the "seedling" can that variety be reproduced."

"Chance" Varieties

"While fruit growers have labored for centuries patiently, lovingly, intensively, on cross-breeding to bring new varieties, Nature is infinitely superior in this. Few good varieties have been 'made.' Most have come as chance 'seedlings.'

"The Stayman is a chance seedling of the famed old-time Winesap, found near Leavenworth, Kansas, about 1875. The Red Delicious was a chance seedling, found in Iowa about 1880. Grimes Golden was found, a chance seedling, in West Virginia, about 1912; the York Imperial near York, Pa., about 1830.

Origin of the other famous varieties is usually lost in antiquity. The only notation of these is: 'Europe, probably France.'"

New Oxford

New Oxford—These men of the Holy Name society of St. Mary's Catholic church have been serving as solicitors throughout this area in preparation for the public card party which their organization will sponsor on Wednesday, November 5, at the parochial hall: Richard J. Smith, William G. Weaver, John Paul Smith, Henry Carbaugh, William C. Noel, Robert Smith, Richard U. Smith, James Smith, Nelson Orndorff, Richard Groft, Carl Stough, Guy Miller, Wilton R. Miller, Bernard Hockensmith, Lawrence Bevenour, Norman Overbaugh, William Todt and Charles Groft, Jr.

The Youth club of the NCCW of St. Mary's Catholic church sponsored a Halloween dance during the week.

Sally Ann, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Wolf, who recently returned from the Warner hospital after treatment, has been taken to a hospital in Baltimore to undergo observation.

Mrs. George E. Sheffer, wife of the pastor of the First Lutheran church, represented this church at the meeting of the Lutheran Women's Missionary society of the West Pennsylvania Conference, this week at Grace Lutheran church, Red Lion.

Members of the local chapter, National Council of Catholic Women, represented their church on Sunday afternoon at a meeting at Waynesboro. Mrs. Raphael H. Smith is president of the local chapter.

The local post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, sponsored a public masquerade Mardi Gras (Friday) evening at Farmers' Grove between Abbottstown and East Berlin. Prizes were awarded for outstanding costumes, and there were square and round dances and other amusements. Music was furnished by "Tee-Bone" and his group of entertainers.

York Springs

York Springs — The local Girl Scout committee coducted a drive during the week toward raising $300 for the Girl Scout Council.

The annual Father and Son Banquet of the local Methodist church took place at the church property during the past week. Addressing the group present was Martin Flegal, Harrisburg, a former baseball star.

Mrs. Harvey Lerew entertained fellow members of the local home economics group at her home on Thursday afternoon.

The Ladies' auvillary of the local fire company met at the Community fire hall on Tuesday evening. The next meeting will be in December at which time a Christmas party will be conducted.

These students at the local high school have attained places on the honor roll for the first report period of this year: Seniors: Thelma Griffie, Jean Hetherington and Dorothy Weigle; juniors: Barbara Chronister, Jean Harbold, Joan Harbold, Estella Sharrer and Curvin Smith; sophomore: Frank W. Hetherington, and freshmen: Earl Guise, Kenneth Kemper, Carole C. Koons and Richard Spertzel.

Cupful Of Free Soil For English Princess

Philadelphia, Nov. 1 (AP) — Princess Elizabeth is going to receive as a wedding gift a silver loving cup filled with soil from Independence square.

Philip Klein, publisher of the Jewish Times which arranged the gift, said yesterday the soil is intended "to dramatize to the future ruler of Britain the present Palestine crisis."

"We hope that next year," Klein said, "on the occasion of her highness' first wedding anniversary, we can send her a cupful of free Palestinian soil."

In very humid or freezing weather, hang starched garments indoors to dry.

O'CONNOR PLANS COURT BATTLE

Cleveland, Nov. 1 (AP)—Shorn of support by seven other American league clubs, Chicago White Sox General Manager Leslie M. O'Connor plans an unprecedented "lone hand" assault on Commissioner A. B. (Happy) Chandler to escape a $500 fine and suspension for signing a high school southpaw pitcher.

The Chicago official, following a six-hour closed session yesterday in which the junior loop's club owners voted to replace him on baseball's executive council, said he would seek a restraining order against the commissioner's edict in Cincinnati's Federal court next week.

Chandler, notified of the league's 7-0 vote to replace O'Connor, declared at his Versailles, Ky., home, that "naturally, I am appreciative of the confidence the American league has shown in me." The commissioner had requested President Will Harridge of the American league to name a replacement for O'Connor to participate in the November 6-7 executive council session at Cincinnati, if the Chicago official were unable to act due to the suspension.

At Chicago White Sox Publicity Director Ward Stevens said O'Connor had Commissioner Chandler "in a vise and there's nothing he (Chandler) can do about it. The club can't lose, no matter what the other American league officials did."

President Harridge, summing up the six-hour session, declared: "From now on, any action is Mr. O'Connor's personal business, and that of the White Sox. Like any business, baseball is anxious to stay out of the courts, but the American league cannot prevent any member club from going into court. Speaking as the league's president, we recognize Commissioner Chandler's interpretation of the rules, and the league will not be a party to any court action."

Armed Bandits Empty Ala. Jewelry Store

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 1 (AP)—A gang of bandits leisurely looted a downtown store of jewelry valued at between $75,000 and $80,000 last night after binding and gagging a jeweler and his family in their home and taking his keys to open the store.

"They left the place as empty as an eggshell," said Louis W. Perry, the owner.

Detective Lt. C. L. Pierce described the daring and apparently minutely planned holdup as "one of the biggest jewelry robberies in the city's history."

The detective said the bandits, variously estimated as numbering between four and six, first went to the Perry home, bound the jeweler and his family and left them under guard while several looted the store.

Magazine Sues For Name Infringement

Pittsburgh, Nov. 1 (AP) — Hearst Magazines, Inc., filed a complaint in Federal District Court against the Good Housekeeping Shop, Inc., of Beaver Falls, charging infringement of copyright and asking unspecified treble damages.

The complaint said the shop, which sells household goods and appliances, since November 20, 1946, has "used the name and trademark 'Good Housekeeping' in connection with the conduct of its business and in connection with the sale of merchandise and advertising" without permission.

Declaring the name "Good Housekeeping" was the copyright property of the magazine Good Housekeeping, the Hearst corporation said the action of the Beaver Falls shop "misleads and deceives the public into the false belief that the defendant is in some way connected or affiliated with the magazine."

"EAGLE'S BROOD"

MONDAY, TUESDAY

A brutal and purposeless murder motivates the action in "Crossfire," an action-mystery thriller, which takes on added significance through its scorching indictment of intolerance. Robert Young, Robert Mitchum and Robert Ryan are co-starred.

It is the punch-packed story of the murder of a Jewish ex-service man and the brilliant work of a detective who, without any clues to work on, tracks down the murderer. Young gets a change of pace as the hard-working detective whose grandfather, an Irish Catholic, was the victim of an equally senseless murder; Mitchum gives a notable portrayal of a sergeant who shields his friend from the police until his innocence is practically assured, and Ryan gives a powerful performance in his first unsympathetic role, that of a bigoted ex-army man.

WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY

The attraction at the Majestic theatre beginning on Wednesday, is Erich Maria Remarque's "The Other Love", starring Barbara Stanwyck and David Niven with Richard Conte, Joan Lorring, Gilbert Roland and Maria Palmer prominently cast.

This story of a concert pianist who retires to an Alpine retreat to regain her health and then runs away with a playboy sportsman for her first taste of riotous living, is set in the Swiss Alps and French Riviera, one of the first filmizations of postwar Continental social life.

FRIDAY, SATURDAY

Five ranking stars top the impressive cast of Warner Bros.' new mystery thriller, "The Unsuspected," Michael Curtiz production, which opens Friday at the Majestic theatre. Joan Caulfield, Claude Rains, Audrey Totter, Constance Bennett and Hurd Hatfield play the leading roles, with a newcomer, Michael North, introduced to the film public. Each role is important to the unraveling of this unusual story which surrounds the personality of a radio performer. Much of the action takes place in a broadcasting studio.

From the radio station, the action of this thrilling mystery story, moves to the country mansion of the radio star, during which time his scripts are being prepared for next week's airing.

JOCKEYS IN HOSPITAL

Baltimore, Nov. 1 (AP)—Jockeys Don Padgett, Jack Turner and Jimmy McGovern nursed injuries today in Maryland general hospital after falls from their mounts at the Pimlico race track.

The hospital listed their injuries as: Padgett, thrown from Tacoro Briar in the eight race yesterday, minor back injury; McGovern, thrown by Battle Cruiser in the third, five fractured ribs; Turner, who fell from Black Swan in the eighth Thursday, cuts and bruises.

Q. What is wrong when you can't bleed all the air from the brake fluid? I have always used new fluid rather than risk putting the bled off fluid back into the lines. Still there is always more air. J.M.

A. A likely cause of this is use of the parking brake which on your car operates through the two rear wheel brakes. See if this condition will improve if you don't use the hand brake for a day. One of these rear brake cylinders may have a defective cup.

Q. When is it necessary to replace the distributor rotor? My car is seven years' old and I am still using the old rotor. W.L.P.

A. Rotors should be replaced when their tips are etched or worn by the action of high tension current.

Mr. Russell will answer questions regarding the safe care and operation of your car. Just address him at 254 Fern street, Hartford, Connecticut, and send stamped, self-addressed envelope for a personal reply. There is no charge.

CAR HITS TREE; TWO ARE KILLED

Uniontown, Pa., Nov. 1 (AP) —Two young men were killed and two pedestrains injured early today as an auto went out of control and struck a tree on a rural road near here, state police reported.

They identified the victims as Raymond W. Smith, 18, and Louis Thomas, 20, both of York Run.

The injured pedestrains, both in serious condition at Uniontown hospital, are John Rogish, 15, and Shirley Riffle, also 15. Both are from Smithfield.

Officers gave this version of the accident:

Rogish and Miss Riffle, who had attended a dance at the Georges township high school, were walking along a rural road. The car occupied by the two boys approached them. A rear wheel came off and the car hurtled towards them, knocking them to the ground and then smashing into a tree.

Both occupants of the car were pronounced dead upon arrival at the hospital. Rogish and Miss Riffle were reported suffering from severe shock. In addition, Rogish has several broken ribs and undetermined arm and leg injuries.

burg, a former deputy clerk of the courts who won the Republican nomination, or by William E. "Johnny" Knox, Gettysburg, the Democratic candidate. Both are World War II veterans.

The race for the three positions on the board of county commissioners which always attracts considerable interest lies between the two Republican nominees, Mervin H. Benner, Mt. Joy township, and Clark L. Fetters, Menallen township; and the Democrats, Carl W. Kane, Franklin township, and G. Ed. Taughinbaugh, of Straban township. Benner formerly served as a county commissioner but none of the others ever held county office. Kane is a former Democratic county chairman and has campaigned previously for county office.

To Re-Elect Crist

With only three candidates, there is no contest for the three positions on the board of county auditors. John S. Wolfe and George M. Conover are the Republicans and Armor M. Weikert, Democrat.

Dr. C. G. Crist, Gettysburg, has both nominations and no opposition for county coroner. The contest for county surveyor is between P. S. Orner, Republican incumbent, and Wilbur V. Redding, Democrat.

Most districts will elect school directors," councilmen or township supervisors, auditors, justices of the peace and election board officers.

Holding both party nominations in the Gettysburg school board race, Mrs. Erma D. Poppay and Dr. R. D. Wickerham seem assured of election. The third member will be Ray J. Kitzmiller, also nominated by the Republicans, or Glenn L. Bream, a Democratic nominee.

John H. Basehore has both nominations for re-election as justice of the peace.

Local Contests

Each ward in Gettysburg will elect two councilmen In the first ward Wilbur J. Stallsmith and Samuel Weiser are the Republican nominees and Calvin D. Stallsmith and Harry Troxell, the Democrats.

In the second ward J. Calvin Shank holds both nominations and Fred Hummelbaugh, a Republican, is the only other name on the ballot.

Third ward voters must choose between H. M. Oyler, nominated by both parties; Harry E. Koch, Republican, and Harold Cromwell, Democrat.

Voters may also mark their ballots "yes" or "no" on a proposed amendment to the state constitution which would provide for an increase in the maximum amount of state debt to $50,000,000 to supply deficiencies in revenue.

Voting places will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

second prize, Dorothy Bream and Helen Fenton; best dressed child, Dotty Shindledecker; best dressed child, second prize, Joan Shultz; best dressed child, third prize, Stephen Lewis; best dressed child, fourth prize, Bobby Lewis; couple married longest number of years, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Elbert; oldest individual person, A. D. Sheely; most recently married couple, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Wagner; youngest individual, seven months old James Taylor.

Variety Of Costumes

Over $100 was distributed among the prize winners with $5 given as first prize in all events with the exception of the married couples who received $7.50.

The costumes ranged the entire world for motif, and practically took care of all history in their scope. There were gypsies, with one of the gypsy women being Mrs. Trostle who won the best dressed single award. There were Chinese couples, with one of the Chinese couples, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Topper being adjudged the best dressed couple. George and Martha Washington were among those present, and one prize winner wore a lard can for a shirt, stove pipes for arms, a flower pot with flowers in it for a hat, a mop for hair and a sieve for a face mask. "Bugs Bunny" and various other similar characters appeared, mostly among the younger contestants.

Charles Conover, son of Harry Conover, Mt. Holly Springs, was awarded the automobile.

Three radios were awarded to: Miriam Arendt and G. O. Heckenluber, both of Arendtsville, and David Eckert, Gettysburg R. 5.

During the evening the fire company demonstrated its new fog-fire-fighting equipment by putting out a blaze set on the fairgrounds.

street, Thursday evning. After the motion picture a luncheon was served. The post will hold their first November meeting on Thursday.

The Ladies' Aid society of St. John's Lutheran church, held their October meeting Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Lewis Lippy, Littlestown, R. 2, in the form of a Halloween masquerade. Mrs. Kenneth D. James received the prize for the prettiest costume and Mrs. Paul Hawk for being the one who couldn't be identified.

The meeting opened with devotions which included a scripture lesson, Philippians 6: 10-26 by Mrs. Edgar Yealy, a prayer by Mrs. Kenneth James and a song service, after which Mrs. William Lippy, president, conducted a brief business session.

Program Given

A program in charge of Mrs. Leonard Kerchner followed which included a poem, "Let's Celebrate," by Mrs. James Duttera; a little Dutch song by Patty and Susan Long; a poem, "At Last" by Jimmy James; a story, "The Black Cat and the Pumpkin" by Nancy Renner; a recitation in the form of a monologue, "Little Orphan Annie," by Charlotte Yingling; a poem, "Halloween" by Mrs. William Lippy, who impersonated a little girl; a song "Halloween Is Around" by Patty and Susan Long; a poem, "When It's Halloween" by Charolyn Groft; a hymn by the group; a story, "Sad Little Pumpkins" by Jimmy James; a play, "Tonight Is Halloween." The cast of characters for the play includes, Barbara, a little girl—Nancy Kerchner; Jack, her brother—Leroy Lippy; Sally, the girl next door—Shirley Sparver, and the witch—Alvina Groft. Then followed poems by Mrs. Katherine Hull and Miss Shirley Jones; a song, "The Camel King" by Patty and Susan Long, and a closing song by all the children present, entitled, "So They Tell."

Games followed, after which the hostesses, Mrs. Lewis Lippy and Mrs. Elmo Jones served refreshments. The guess packages were presented by Mrs. Lewis Lippy and were received by Mrs. Andrew Bauerline and Mrs. Benton Flickinger.

The next meeting will be held on November 20, one week earlier than the regular meeting night because of Thanksgiving. The hostesses for the meeting, which will be held at the home of Mrs. Edwin Harget along the Harney road, will be Mrs. Edwin Harget and Mrs. Arthur Boyd.

Troop No. 1, Girl Scouts held a Halloween party in St. Aloysius hall Thursday evening, when each member brought a guest. The hall was decorated gy the scouts and was in keeping with the Halloween season.

There was a recitation of poems, followed by an impromptu broadcast in which all participated. A broom was used for the microphone, and Yvonne McCaffrey was master of ceremonies. Nancy Rang won the prize for the best number on the broadcast which was a solo. A playlet was then presented by Dorothy Jones, Yvonne McCaffrey and Margaret Rang. The program ended with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" after which there were games and refreshments. The refreshment committee consisted of Patricia Kress, Mary Ellen Collins, Nancy Rang and Josephine Weaver. Dorothy Jones, Barbara Ann Beck, Yvonne McCaffrey and Margaret Rang were the entertainment committee.

Class Holds Meeting

The Tuch-A-Bache class of St. John's Lutheran church held their monthly meeting Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Walter Yingling, Lumber street. The meeting was in charge of the president, Mrs. William Lippy. It opened with a song service, followed by a responsive scripture lesson, Psalm 136 and the 23rd Psalm in unison. Routine business was transacted. The class will conduct a food sale in the fire hall next Saturday from 8 to 10 a. m. Joyce Forry sang "In the Garden." The entertainment was in charge of Mrs. Edgar Yealy and Mrs. Arthur Mummert. The meeting closed with the "Lord's Prayer" in unison. Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Walter Yingling. The November meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Roy Forry, Center street, Hanover, and will be held on November 19, one week earlier than the regular meeting night.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stover, daughter, Marilyn Joyce, Larry Gene, York, are spending Friday and Saturday with Mrs. Stovers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Garland, East King street, and with Mr. Stover's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Robert Stover, South Queen street.

The Ladies' Aid of Redeemer's Reformed church met in the social hall of the church Tuesday evening in charge of the president, Mrs. Charles Hofe. The devotions were in charge of Mrs. S. W. Beck, who read the Scripture lesson and conducted a discussion on St. Matthew. Mrs. Granville Jacoby was pianist.

The item of business was a discussion of the annual cafeteria and bazaar which will be held in the social hall of the church on Saturday, November 15, from 4 to 8 p. m. and it will be open to the public. The next meeting will be Tuesday, November 11, and the leader will be Mrs. Harry M. Badders. The meeting closed with the Lord's prayer.

The Youth Fellowship of Redeemer's Reformed church held a Halloween party in the social hall of the church on Wednesday evening. About 20 young people were present. The party divided into two groups and conducted a treasure hunt, with the winning team receiving a prize. Other games were played and refreshments were served. The decorating committee consisted of Harriet Badders, Eleanor Bankert and Lorraine Myers. Emily Badders, Doris Hess and Jane Bowers comprised the committee on games while Brenda Walker, Margaret Stonesifer and Shirley Hawk were the refreshment committee.

WEAK-END NOTE

There's a lively feud in a Pennsylvania pro football league over a lunch. Seems the business manager of a "home" team was asked to arrange for the visitors' post-game meal. He did, at the cost of about three bucks per man, and the entire visitors' share of the gate receipts went to pay the tab.

Old records show that between 1674 and 1714, a total of 1,332 vessels were built in this country.

Public Is Invited To Peace Meeting

"A day's adventure in understanding and appreciation between those of different nations, races and faiths" is scheduled for November 9, at the Church World Service center at New Windsor, Maryland, where a conference, to which the public is invited, will be held with representatives of about a dozen nationalities taking part. The theme of the one-day meeting will be "What Price Peace?"

Included on the program will be Chinese, Japanese, Russian, Italian, Greek, American, Polish, Turkish, Negro, Jewish and Quaker men and women of repute in their respective professional fields.

Music by Norwegian, Polish, Friends and Russian choirs and Miss Norma Manns, Negro vocalist, will be presented at the afternoon and evening sessions, to be held from two to five and 6:30 to 8:30 p. m.

A buffet supper will be served at 5:30 at a minimum charge. Reservations must be made by November 4.

WAR ON RATS

Waynesboro, Pa., Nov. 1 (AP) — An all-out attack against rats and other grain-filching rodents is being mapped here by townpeople and nearby farmers in an effort to save vital grain supplies. The mass extermination attempt will get underway on November 24 when a ton and a half of horsemeat will be mixed with rat poison in a concrete mixer and distributed throughout the community and to hundreds of farm owners in two nearby townships.
